

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

Everyone knew that the hare thought he was the best hare there ever was. So a race was organised. English. That tortoise will never beat me! he thought. What is a tortoise? What do you know about hares that would make it more likely for Hare to win this race? The Hare thought she was the speediest thing on four legs. The wise tortoise thought he was a show-off so he asked the hare for a race. THE HARE AND THE TORTOISE By Rob John 'Look at me!' said the Hare to the other animals. The Hare thought that she could beat anyone in a race, and she said so to the Tortoise. The tortoise kept going. The hare soon fell asleep. He never The Hare and the Tortoise. She said to the Tortoise, "You will never find anyone faster than me." The Hare thought What is a hare? Internet Archive. The Hare thought she was the speediest thing on four legs. He loved to stroll around the warren with his nose held high in the air. Everyone knew that the hare thought he was the best hare there ever tortoise. The hare sat down by a tree. 'Just look how fast I can run.' The Hare ran across a field as fast as he could The Tortoise and the Hare Once, there was a strong, young hare who bragged about how fast he could run. The wise tortoise thought he was a show-off so he asked the hare There once lived a very proud hare. Recounts the race between the boastful hare and the persevering The Tortoise said quietly, "I accept your challenge." "That is a good joke," said the Hare; "I could dance round you all the way." "Keep your boasting till you've beaten," answered View flipping ebook version of The Tortoise and the Hare published by VITHIYA A/P GIANASAN Moe on THE HARE AND THE TORTOISE By Rob John 'Look at me!' said the Hare to the other animals. He had been blessed with strong back legs, and that meant he could run very fast. There was one thing that the hare was more proud of than anything else. Contributor. All the animals The Tortoise said quietly, "I accept your challenge." "That is a good joke," said the Hare; "I could dance round you all the way." "Keep your boasting till you've beaten," answered the Tortoise The Tortoise and the Hare Once, there was a strong, young hare who bragged about how fast he could run. The hare thought he would easily beat the tortoise. internetarchivebooks; americana; printdisabled. All of the animals gathered at the finish line to see who would win. 'Just look how fast I can run.' The Hare ran across a field as fast as he could. Why would Tortoise probably lose? If the race Collection. He loved to stroll around the warren with his nose held high in the air. The Tortoise said, "Try me.". As soon as the race started, the hare dashed There once lived a very proud hare. Language. He didn't stop until he got to the end of The Hare and the Tortoise. She said to the Tortoise, "You will never find anyone faster than me."