

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

What's clear is that the immigrant experience is as unique as each individual. From a young Vietnamese refugee who suffers profound culture shock when he comes to live with two gay men in San Francisco, to a woman whose husband is suffering from dementia and starts to confuse her with a former lover, to a girl living in Ho Chi Minh City whose older half-sister comes back from America having seemingly accomplished. In these powerful stories, written over a period of twenty years and set in both Vietnam and America, Viet Thanh Nguyen paints a vivid portrait of the experiences of people leading lives between two worlds, the adopted homeland and the country of birth.

From a young Vietnamese refugee who suffers profound culture shock when he comes to live with two gay men in San Francisco, to a woman whose husband is suffering from dementia and starts to confuse her for a former lover, to a girl living in Ho Chi Minh City whose older half-sister comes back from America having seemingly accomplished. Viet Thanh Nguyen's story collection in The Refugees focuses on Vietnamese refugees in complex, interesting and sometimes surprising ways. Publication date: Publisher: Sobel er Associates, Inc. Collection: internetarchivebooks; inlibrary; printdisabled. Contributor: Viet Thanh Nguyen draws unforgettable pictures of refugees who have arrived and lived in different circumstances. This incisive collection by the National Book Award finalist and celebrated author of The Sympathizer is Nguyen's first published short story collection and his first book after winning the Pulitzer Prize for The Vietnam War. In these powerful stories, written over a period of twenty years and set in both Vietnam and America, Viet Thanh Nguyen paints a vivid portrait of the experiences of people leading lives between two worlds, the adopted homeland and the country of birth. His grasp of the culture shock of immigrating is firm, as is his grasp of the suffering of the Vietnamese (refugees) in his debut short story The Refugee Identity in The Other Man from The Refugees by Viet Thanh Nguyen. Nguyen's next fiction book, The Refugees, is a collection of perfectly formed stories written over a period of twenty years, exploring questions of immigration, identity, love, and family. The Refugees is a short story collection by Viet Thanh Nguyen.