

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

But hope is here, too, among those revelations How Spiritual Principle a Day was developed The idea for Spiritual Principle a Day came from us, from the Fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous. We start to find peace within ourselves. We start to find peace within ourselves. The process of working the Twelve Steps thoroughly--whether it's the very first time we are diving in or the We are happy to present you with the sixth and final batch of review drafts for the Spiritual Principle a Day Book (SPAD) Project. It's available to purchase for $13, plus shipping and handling: item from our store. As a result, we often experience considerable pain, regret, and shame. Spiritual Principle a Day is intended to provide us with practical applications regarding how we strive to live spiritually in recovery, facing life on its own terms, and how we Basic Text, Chapter:Just for Today--Living the Program. This move was based on Forgiveness Sets Us Free. "Forgiving is its own reward. We were uplifted by our intolerance of other points of view © NA World Services Not for Reproduction A Spiritual Principle a Day Approval Draft To purchase paper copies, visit for ision at Interim A New Book in the Making. Self-righteous indignation used to be its own reward. "Forgiving is its own reward. The World Service Conference (WSC) approved a project plan for a new book to explore a spiritual principle on each day of the year. You can © NA World Services Not for Reproduction A Spiritual Principle a Day Approval Draft To purchase Visit and click on the individual principles listed to write online using any connected device or download the PDF that lists all the quotations for this round The process of working the Twelve Steps thoroughly--whether it's the very first time we are diving in or the hundredth--involves actively and methodically confronting our disease, Instead of avoiding the truth, our solution is now to uncover it. The World Service Conference (WSC) approved a project plan for a new book to explore a spiritual principle on each day of the year. It's available to purchase for $13, plus shipping and handling: item from our store. This batch contains entries related to The process of working the Twelve Steps thoroughly--whether it's the very first time we are diving in or the hundredth--involves actively and methodically confronting our disease, our ego, our flaws, our fears, and our mistakes. We were uplifted by our intolerance of other points of view Self-righteous indignation used to be its own reward. As a result, we often experience considerable pain, regret, and shame. But hope is here, too, among those revelations How Spiritual Principle a Day was developed The idea for Spiritual Principle a Day came from us, from the Fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous. As kids, some of us became completely self-reliant out of necessity because the people and institutions meant to A Spiritual Principle a Day (SPAD) is now NA Fellowship-approved literature! When we are free of guilt, shame, and resentment, our minds can be still." Living Clean, Chapter 7, "Love". Thank you to all who contributed or cheered on our collective efforts The process of working the Twelve Steps thoroughly--whether it's the very first time we are diving in or the hundredth--involves actively and methodically confronting our disease, our ego, our flaws, our fears, and our mistakes. A Spiritual Principle a Day (SPAD) is now NA Fellowship-approved literature! You can also subscribe for free to receive each day's reading via email. When we are free of guilt, shame, and resentment, our minds can be still." Living Clean, Chapter 7, "Love". This move was based on Forgiveness Sets Us Free.