

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

Keep in mind you can only search the text in a PDF document if it includes actual text. Make a PDF searchable with Adobe Acrobat, or drop PDF here. Press CTRL+F (Windows) or CMD+F (Mac). OCR your PDF to get text from scanned documents. In the free PDF Reader, this shows as a search box with a magnifying glass. Then: Choose the aspect ratio for your PDF file. In the text box, enter your search term. In the Find text box, type your search term, then Enter the word or phrase you want to find in your document in the Find dialogue box. If you need text recognition choose Convert with OCR. Configure the OCR On Mac, control-click the PDF file. Simply upload your PDF and recognize text automatically. Open any PDF with your default PDF reader. This will also work if you open a PDF in Adobe Reader or Mac Preview. Press Ctrl + F (Windows) or ⌘ Cmd + F (Mac). Alternatively, use your keyboard's Ctrl+F or Cmd+F shortcut. It will also tell you right in the search bar how many times that word or Upload your PDF file. Alternatively, press the left arrow key to go back. To find and replace text in a single PDF, select the magnifying glass in the menu bar or use the keyboard shortcut (Ctrl+F on a PC and Command+F on a Mac) to open the Find toolbar. Choose Convert if your document does not contain any scanned images. Find and select the document you want to make searchable, then click Open. From the top menu bar, click on the search icon to start your search. We support You can use Ctrl+F to search your PDF for certain words, regardless of which PDF reader you're using. Click Open. First, you need to add a file for search: drag & drop your PDF file or click inside the white area for choose a file and specify the search. This app allows you to search a PDF for a word or phrase using simple or complex queries. Click on the previous and next buttons to move through the results that match your search word or phrase in the document. Step 1: Open the PDF in Acrobat Reader. Open your PDF document in Acrobat. In this comprehensive guide, we'll walk you through various methods to effectively search within a PDF, from basic browser searches to utilizing advanced features in dedicated PDF search engines. How can I search text in PDF document? The first match will be highlighted. Select the Replace With option. You can do this by clicking on "File" in the menu bar, then selecting "Open" and navigating to the location of the PDF file on your computer. Select Open with and select your browser. Begin by launching Adobe Acrobat Reader and opening the PDF document you want to search within. Then follow the steps below: Open your PDF file in the iLovePDF PDF Reader. This will open the Find feature. Head to Tools and select Recognize Text. To start searching in PDF, please upload your file and our PDF search engine will select PDF file. How to search a PDF. You can search for words and phrases in a PDF file by simply using the "Find" command from within an Acrobat app. To make a PDF searchable using Adobe Acrobat, you can follow these steps: Open Adobe Acrobat on your computer. As you type in the search bar, you'll begin to see suggestions and frequency of occurrences in the document. To find words in a PDF on your Mac or Windows PC, first, download and install iLovePDF. Make your PDF searchable. How to Resize your PDF. First: Upload your file from your computer or a cloud or drag and drop it into the field above. Press PDF Output Style Searchable Image. How To Search for a Word in a PDF Using Any PDF Reader. Press "Enter" or click the right arrow to navigate between the results.