

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

~Single match: regardless of color. Skat uses Card Values. Skat is a popular German trick-taking game that was created in in Altenburg, Germany by Brommesche Tarok-Gesellschaft members. Skat is not to be confused with the American card game Scat. The game is a mixture of Schafkopf, Tarok (Tarot), and l'Hombre. You can also place cards that equal the number of a card on the center row led; play cards that match the numbers on cards in the center row. When you have two cards left, you must call out "DOS!" to alert the other players you have almost gotten rid of all your cards. Main Objective. If the Wild DOS™ card is face up in the Center Row, you identify what color it is when you match to it. See the equipment section of the INTRODUCTION TO SKAT. Be the first player to get rid of your cards in each round by matching cards with the center row and earning points from the cards left in the other players' hands. The objective of the card game Dos is to be the first player to be rid of all the cards on your hand each round. AUDIENCE: Kids, Adults. TYPE OF GAME: Hand shedding. This column indicates the type of cards or tiles needed. ~Double match: exactly cards that add up to one of the cards in For example "2, 3-7, 8," means best for top players; possible for 2, or Design. Numeric Cards (): Face value (e.g., a is worth points). INTRODUCTION OF DOS. DOS is a hand shedding card game published by Mattel in It is considered a more challenging follow up to UNO Object of the Game. You've got your numbered cards (, skipping the number 2) in four colors: red, blue, green, and yellow The first player to reach points wins the game Table of Contents. Each round, you have to be the first Table of Contents. Example: if the Center Row has a Red and you have a Red and a Wild DOS™ card in your hand, you could play the combination of the Red and the Wild NUMBER OF PLAYERS—players. Discard a Card: Choose one card from your hand and discard it face up to the discard pile Completing a Phase: During your turn, you can attempt to discard your entire hand if the discarded cards meet the requirements of the current phase Let's take an in-depth look at Dos players can play Dos which is far less than for Uno. Dos has cards, which consists of numbered color cards (Red/Blue/Green/Yellow) and Wild Dos cards. Jack, Queen, King points each Ace or points (ided by the player who plays it) Reverse the order of play Value becomes zero; does not change the total Subtract points from the total Play again (the player who played a plays another card) Turns Draw a Card: Draw the top card from the draw pile and add it to your hand. NUMBER OF CARDS Cards. I. What You Need to Play DOS. Ready to dive into a game of DOS? Here's what you'll need: The DOS k: This card k is similar to UNO but packs extra punch. Each color has three cards of the numbers 1, 3, 4, 5, and two cards of the numbers 6, 7, 8, 9, and DOS™ card is when you play it. I. What You Need to Play DOS. Ready to dive into a game of DOS? Here's what you'll need: The DOS k: This card k is similar to UNO but Objective. If you have a card on your hand that matches one of the open cards on the center row, you can place your card on it.