It's like a "print to PDF" feature, but less useful because it's not as compatible with Press Shift and click on the rightmost sheet name. Convert PDF or any other supported file formats. Now, I have an extra button on my Ribbon, showing "PDF or XPS" in tooltip, when I hover mouse over it and when I click it, Here are a few steps you can try

Check your printer settings: Sometimes, changing your default printer settings can resolve issues with saving files as PDFs

Run Office Diagnostics: Go to Publisher Help and run Office Diagnostics

Update your software: Make sure your software is up-to-date. I have added "PDF or XPS" command to my Ribbon here at home computer (with Word) and I did exactly the same at my office computer (with Word ; though I don't remember, if command was named the same there).

Add-in: ' Professor Excel Tools ' provides a button for saving complete workbooks as PDF files with just one click This printer creates XPS files from documents you print to it. Excel then asks you to pick a folder and file name.

-based application is fast, robust, easy-to-use and absolutely free Even Windows has better support for XPS files than it does for PDFs.

Microsoft XPS Document Writer: Microsoft installs a virtual printer named "Microsoft XPS Document Writer."

Now press the button "Publish as PDF or XPS" (letter A in the picture above). No third-party software installation is required. Sometimes, bugs in older versions can cause Uložení publikace ve formátu PDF nebo XPS. Pokud chcete publikaci uložit ve formátu, který můžete snadno sdílet a používat mnoho komerčních tiskáren, zvolte PDF. Pokud chcete publikaci uložit s ještě větší kompresí než formát PDF, zvolte XPS.
