

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

This guide will help you: Understand what the examiner expects in part 1. Give you an idea of common questions that might be asked in part 1 module. Answers: b, a, a, c, c, b, a, c. Yes, I did numerous (too many to count) times because our teachers wanted us to cultivate study habits. You should use them only as a guide to help you with your own answers. go over key points of the speaking test. to help students find ideas and responses to Part questions. elicit the answers from the class. Tests that appears in the IELTS speaking module. Even if your English is not perfect, you can transform your IELTS Band score by using this book. to give students practice with Part and to give and receive feedback. Aims. to enable students to find time to think about the question before answering. This part of the speaking test lasts about 4-5 minutes. Learning outcomes. The model answers are intended as a guide and candidates should modify them. The answers I have given here are just models to show you the type of answers that I would give. Don't try to memorise answers, and then try to answer. Material: handout (m/c questions) Time: 10 minutes Procedure: make a copy of handout for each student (or project questionnaire on screen) put students into pairs or small groups to discuss and answer the questions. IELTS Speaking Part 1: Introductory Questions. Don'ts in the IELTS Speaking Part. The examiner is very likely to ask you if you work or whether you are a student, and then other questions depending on your answer. Speaking practice. In the first part of the IELTS Speaking Test, the examiner wants you to feel as relaxed as possible and therefore he or she will ask you general questions about yourself. Honestly, I easily got bored spending time at the library because all I had in mind at that time was to play outside with my friends. Students will be able to use fixed phrases to buy thinking time. Speaking part is about you, not me. Unlike IELTS Speaking Part 3, you will need to give short answers instead of long ones. Even if your English is not perfect, you can transform your IELTS Band score by using this book. The model answers are: What kind of housing/accommodation do you live in? Do you live in a house or a flat? Who do you live with? How long have you lived there? Do you plan to live there? These questions will be about you and you have to give short answers with or without sentences. This ebook provides model answers for IELTS Speaking Actual Tests that appears in the IELTS speaking module.