Here are several ways in which lip types are different. The lips are an essential aspect of the human face and play a critical role in facial expression, phonation, sensation, mastication, physical attraction, and intimacy. This lip care routine will help your lips stay in tip-top shape — no matter the season. Whether it's a tried-and-true skin care regimen, how often you wash your face, the hair you use, or the cosmetics you're using, your lips are as unique as fingerprints. Your lips are unique — so unique that lip prints can reliably be used for identification. The upper and lower lips are known as, respectively, the upper lip and the lower lip.
