

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

With default settings, Chrome browser automatically opens up PDF files. Turn off auto-open of PDFs in the system viewer Like all the modern browsers, it supports PDF files. Find out how to download PDF files on Chrome with ease and without any hassle The native Chrome PDF viewer is the default way to open PDF files and view them in Chrome. The next time you click a PDF link, Chrome will automatically download it to This help content & information General Help Center experience. In the Chrome browser, select the three vertical dots (More icon) in the upper-right corner. To stop this, turn it off from Open the download list popup, right click on a PDF download from the list and select the option to Always open with the system viewer. This is also happening in Adobe Tired of Chrome opening PDF files instead of downloading them? This works if want only downloaded PDFs to open in your external PDF viewer (Adobe Acrobat, Foxit Reader, etc.), you don't need to disable the Chrome PDF Viewer. It is a useful feature, but on the other hand, it won't let users download a PDF files to your PC This In Windows, Chromenow automatically downloads PDFs anytime I click a PDF link or click to download a PDF email attachment. This let users view pdf files inside the browser without opening any other PDF viewer. Search. You can You can click next to Download PDFs to stop Chrome from opening PDF documents in a new tab. Clear search The Adobe Acrobat Reader Windows app has a setting that allows it to launch PDF files once they have been downloaded in Chrome automatically. Choose Settings > Privacy and security > Site Settings > Additional content settings > You could use the download property in your link (anchor) like so: pdf" download target="_blank">download PDF file. It's relatively simple to adjust your Chrome PDF viewer settings.