

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

Jnanappana can be considered as the Bhagavad Gita of Malayali Hindus. Poonthanam Nambudiri, an ardent devotee of Shri Guruvayurappan, transformed his unbearable sorrow from his infant son's death into a 'yogavishesham'

Jnanappana Malayalam poetry by Poonthanam Nampoothiri First published: version published: These electronic versions are released under the provisions of Creative Commons

Guruvayoor Guruvayur Abode of LORD KRISHNAGURUVAYOORAPPAN This is a Darshanika kaavyam or philosophical poem expressed in the simplest Malayalam language for the ordinary people. Poonthanam Nambudiri, an ardent devotee of Shri Guruvayurappan, transformed his unbearable sorrow from his infant son's death into a 'yogavishesham'

Guruvayoor Guruvayur Abode of LORD KRISHNA This is a Darshanika kaavyam or philosophical poem expressed in the most simple Malayalam language for ordinary people. A square with an arrow arcing out from the center of the square

Jnanappana Malayalam poetry by Poonthanam Nampoothiri First published: version published: These electronic versions are released under the provisions of Creative Commons

An arrow pointing downward at an empty document tray.

This is a darshanika kavyam or philosophical poem expressed in simple Malayalam for ordinary The Jnanappana is noted for its literary quality, the use of simple phrases, its philosophical strength and reflects Poonthanam's deep bhakti to Guruvayoorappan. Missing: pdf/jnanappaana : Free Download, Borrow, and Streaming: Internet Archive.