A few years after I composed Lux Aurumque I began work on a musical called Paradise Lost. After a performance of Go, Lovely Rose in, Dr. Jocelyn K. Jensen approached me about writing a piece for her High School Choir. She is an amazing conductor, legendary for doing crazy things on stage (choralography, lighting, costumes, you name it), and I wanted to write something for her that would really knock the Note from Composer. The film is a first-of-its-kind collaboration between Grammy® award-winning composer & conductor Eric Whitacre, producers Music Productions, scientists and visualizers from the Space Telescope Science Institute and multi award-winning artistsProductions. The central theme of the story is about an angel without wings who longs to fly, and at the climax of the show the onstage angels sing the word "paradise" over and over, a glorious, cathartic anthem The Text.
