The lyrics call on God to allow the singer to sow love where there is hatred, bring pardon where there is injury, Lord, make me an instrument of your peace, Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness This hymn about peace-making is based on a peace-prayer attributed (apparently incorrectly) to St Francis of Assisi. Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace. It was written by South African born lay Franciscan Johann Sebastian von Tempelhoff, who is usually known as Sebastian Temple (). The most-prominent hymn version of the prayer is "Make Me a Channel of Your Peace", or simply "Prayer of St. Francis", adapted and set to a chant-like melody in by South Makeme of your peace.
