

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

The image guidance is provided by having In addition to our existing device-specific directions for use and manuals of operation, Alcon is developing recommendations on the use of optional device-specific protective ARGOS® Biometer Delivers Substantial Time Efficiencies to Cataract Surgery Practices, Surgeons and Patients, as the industry-leading Swept Source Optical Coherence Discover the VERION™ image-guided precision of astigmatism correction with the ARGOS Biometer, integrated with the Alcon Cataract Refractive Suite. The ARGOS® Biometer Alcon Vision Planner v Biometer Vision Planner. biometer that provides the biometry, keratometry and high-resolution the eye prior to cataract surgery and aids in the selection of the appropriate It also includes a PC with Alcon Vision Planner Software. 1 FASTER EASIER.* ,5,6 BETTER. 1,2,7, iometry and keratometry capture time 9 Easier integrated planning solutions reduces need for print outs and transfer of documents throughout the clinic. 5,6 Remote vision planner software can provide real time access to measurement and planning data making it easier for surgeons to conduct virtual The ARGOS® Biometer and integrated Alcon Vision Planner makes the process of surgery planning and IOL power calculation easier.* This comprehensive tool eliminates the need for complicated online and manual calculations while continuing to optimise patient outcomes with Image Guidance by Alcon®* Compared to VERION™ Reference Unit ARGOS® optical biometer with Image Guidance by Alcon| Alcon Canada. The ARGOS® Biometer with Image Guidance by Alcon® is a swept-source based biometer that provides the biometry, keratometry and high-resolution image of the eye Fully integrated with the Alcon Cataract Refractive Suite, including LENSX® Laser, VERION® Image Guided System, and the ORA SYSTEM® technology, helping make it ARGOS® offers a faster, easier and better cataract surgery planning solution to keep efficiency and accuracy flowing through your g: pdf Fig Figure displays the reference image captured by the Argos Biometer and the Alcon Vision planner used to create the surgical plan including IOL power calculation Argos Biometer with Image Guidance by Alcon is an integrated biometer that provides image guidance to the surgeons (Fig.). My Alcon Professional The ARGOS Biometer New Professional EN. ARGOS® offers a faster, easier and better cataract surgery planning solution to keep efficiency and accuracy flowing through your clinic The ARGOS® Biometer with Image Guidance by Alcon® is a swept-source based. I am a Patient or Consumer.