Please understand that if I am blunt, it is only because I truly believe in the importance of speaking directly about this subject that some Here bishop T.D. Jakes calls for believers to strip away all layers of superficiality, religious reasonings, and pious pretendings were pure therefore their actions were pure. But what realization was that? The Bible is explicit that Adam and Eve "were not ashamed." Furthermore the scriptures state, "And they heard the voice Before eating the forbidden fruit Adam and Eve were both naked and not ashamed. This brings us to a very important understanding about the nature of sin. God never told them they were naked or that it was shameful, so their actions were without sin. This principle is simply, "Sin is mainly of the heart" Outward purity vs inward holiness And They Were Not Ashamed It is written, "And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed."
