

I'm not robot

I'm not robot!

Mission: deliver the right capability at the right time to transform and sustain the light tactical fleet. the joint light tactical vehicle (jltv) is a new support vehicle programme being developed by the us forces, specifically pdf the us army, ussocom, and the marine corps to replace the rapidly ageing and outmoded high- mobility multipurpose wheeled vehicle (hmwv), the design of which is over 25 years old. the joint light tactical vehicle (jltv) program is an army- led, joint modernization program designed to replace a portion of army and marine corps light tactical wheeled vehicle fleets while. vision: developing and empowering the premier acquisition workforce to deliver and support. jltv will be built in a military production facility at am general' s 96- acre mishawaka manufacturing campus in indiana. deliveries are expected to begin 17 months after contract jltv tm pdf award, according.