

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

Basic life support is indicated for: Airway obstruction Breathing (respiratory) arrest Circulatory or cardiac arrest MEDICAL FIRST AIDS GUIDE FOR USE IN ACCIDENTS INVOLVING DANGEROUS GOODS (MFAG)Free download as PDF File.pdf) or read online for free MFAG Foreword The IMO/WHO/ILO Medical First Aid Guide for Use in Accidents Involving Dangerous Goods (MFAG) is the Chemicals Supplement to the International Medical Tags The IMO/WHO/ILO Medical First Aid Guide for Use in Accidents involving Dangerous Goods (MFAG) refers to the substance, material and articles covered by the MEDICAL FIRST AIDS GUIDE FOR USE IN ACCIDENTS INVOLVING DANGEROUS GOODS (MFAG)Free download as PDF File.pdf) or read online for free All ships shall carry the medical equipment and stores supplies specified in Table 3, Tableand Table 5, as applicable to the ship, dependent on the use of ship and its operating Introduction. The IMO/WHO/ILO Medical First Aid Guide for Use in Accidents involving Dangerous Goods (MFAG) refers to the substances, material and articles covered by Whoops! There was a problem previewing Retrying including the Medical First Aid Guide for Use in Accidents Involving Dangerous Goods (MFAG) and the material safety data sheets (MSDS) relating to the hazardous chemical The MFAG refers to the substances, material and articles covered by the IMDG Code, and the materials covered by Appendixof the IMSBC Code for cargoes identified as being The IMO/WHO/ILO Medical First Aid Guide for Use in Accidents Involving Dangerous Goods (MFAG) is the Chemicals Supplement to the International Medical Guide for Ships (IMGS)* which is published by the World Health Organization (WHO), Geneva MFAG Foreword The IMO/WHO/ILO Medical First Aid Guide for Use in Accidents Involving Dangerous Goods (MFAG) is the Chemicals Supplement to the International Medical Guide for Ships (IMGS)* which is published by the World Health Organization (WHO), Geneva Information on medical first aid is provided in the IMO/WHO/ILO Medical First Aid Guide for use in accidents Involving dangerous Goods (MFAG), which is the chemicals supplement to the International Medical guide for ships (IMGS) which is published by the World Health Organization (WHO), Geneva All ships shall carry the medical equipment and stores supplies specified in Table 3, Tableand Table 5, as applicable to the ship, dependent on the use of ship and its operating area. Tableidentifies the scales applicable to ship use and operational area MFAG TableCPR (CARDIO-PULMONARY RESUSCITATION) Basic life support comprises the “A-B-C” steps which concern the airway, breathing, and circulation respectively.