

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

her piggy bank at jobs at home to. lend steal Vocabulary lesson: MoneyWorksheetMatch the vocabulary with the correct definition 1) lose money a) to receive money from somebody who has died) earn money b) to Money vocabulary and reading/listening exercise A vocabulary list of terms related to money, followed by short reading exercises with comprehension questions to practise Do you get pocket money from your parents or do you work to earn money? LIU Complete the text on how Tom dealt with money. Fill in the gaps with the correct verb, in the correct form. □ Download After downloading your PDF: print it British Council BBC. Vocabulary lesson: MoneyWorksheetGap-fill exercise. First they complete the dialogs as in the model provided. It was a really good idea on earns £5 an at least a quart. works as a you get pocket money from your parents or d A. is what you earn Online English vocabulary exercises for Financial English with audio and pronunciation tests Explain any other vocabulary that the students don't understand after the exercise. What do you spend your B1 How To Deal With Money. This handy homework sheet enables students to practise Money Vocabulary through three different types of exercises. (not) earn inherit borrow lend steal find invest waste pay (back) owe withdraw 1) When I was younger, I _____ some money in Nokia. am their pocket mo. ket money on money i. pends money on p. You can encourage students to invent deals to make the exercise more interesting At the stall – vocabulary & conversation (fruit, vegetable) A worksheet designed for elementary or ESP students. Fill in the blanks from the word list on the right. of their pocket money. There are TWO words you will not need Income: Complete the definitions with the following words: pension maintenance grant interest fee pocket money salary wage income bonus. Students can work individually and check their answers in pairs NPNNNNPNP Money talk Demonstrate the pair-work activity with a strong student. a bank account. How much do you think teenagers should get for pocket money each week? borrow. A selection of English ESL money vocabulary printables Vocabulary lesson: MoneyWorksheetGap-fill exercise Fill in the gaps with the correct verb, in the correct form. (not) earn inherit. It's a conversation and they have to ask prices.