

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

He is not as tall as LESSON Comparative Adjectives and Adverbs Comparatives and superlatives We can use comparatives to compare things and superlatives to say which thing is top in a group True or false? bigger than bigger as bigger than bigger as. I am taller than my brother and sister but my dad is the tallest. We use the 'superlative' when we speak ESL Worksheet: Comparatives and Superlatives. For example: "Is it the giraffe?" They can guess times If your partner is correct the first time, they get 3 Superlative adjectives are used to compare three or more things. Superlative Adjective Sentence Formula. The worksheet is suitable for both classroom practice and self-study Q She is _____ in the class. Q I'm not as successful _____ she is Check their knowledge of comparative and superlative forms uses. the best best better than as good as. We use the 'comparative' when we compare two things. Comparative adjectives. Read and circle true or Learn when and why use comparatives and superlatives in English! Choose the correct answer. (fast) This is _____ place I have ever seen. It contains a story with questions, gap fill exercise, true and false exercise, conversation section and a writ COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES COMPARATIVE. (good) An airplane travels _____ than a car. We use comparative adjectives to show change or make comparisons: This car is certainly This worksheet will reinforce Comparatives and Superlatives. Q Brazil is _____ England. Comparative and superlative adjectives. Superlative adjectives are generally used in the following sentence structure Comparatives and superlatives Read and find. as then than like. (old) Russia is _____ than Canada In this lesson, students learn how to form and use the comparative and superlative forms of adjectives and adverbs. This is my family. Learn when and why use comparatives and superlatives in English! Q It's better _____ I thought. (beautiful) Who is _____ person in your family? Level: beginner. I think being a vet is more interesting than being a teacher because you work with animals Fill in the blank with the correct comparative or superlative form of the adjective given in parenthesis He dances _____ than I do. We use the 'comparative' when we compare two things. For example: "It's faster than a zebra, taller than an elephant, and it's got the longest neck in Africa." Your partner must guess the animal. Start your download now! * EQUALITY: (NOT) AS + ADJECTIVE + AS = tan como My sister is as intelligent as him. My mum is a vet and my dad is a teacher. Find the comparative and superlative adjectives and write them in the boxes. A selection of English ESL comparison (comparative and superlative) printables Complete the sentences with the correct comparative or superlative adjective or adverb LESSON Comparative Adjectives and Adverbs Free English Lesson PDF Download. We use the 'superlative' when we speak about something of the highest order, quality or degree Think of an animal. Describe it using comparatives and superlatives. They help describe things on either end of a spectrum (e.g., smallest and largest, tallest and shortest).