Directive (EU) of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2016 on measures for a high common level of cybersecurity across the Union. To better secure Europe's most important services, the Network and Information Security Systems Directive (NIS 2) has been published, which member states must transpose. In this paper you will find KPMG's approach to IT and OT security improvement in light of the NIS2 directive, which can be tailored to the more specific needs of your business. The NIS2 Directive, also known as the new version of the Network and Information Security Directive, is a European directive aimed at strengthening cybersecurity in the amending Regulation (EU) No 2019/881 and Directive (EU) 2016/1148, and repealing Directive (EU) 2016/1148 (NIS Directive). (As an agreement was reached between the proposed draft NIS has renamed the categories defined by the old NIS Directive, expanded the number of regulated sectors, and significantly expanded the types of Directive (EU) of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2016 on measures for a high common level of cybersecurity across the Union, amending Regulation (EU) No 2019/881 and Directive (EU) 2016/1148, and repealing Directive (EU) 2016/1148 (NIS Directive) (Text with EEA relevance) PE/32/REV/2 Directive (EU) of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2016 on measures for a high common level of cybersecurity across the Union, amending Regulation (EU) No 2019/881 and Directive (EU) 2016/1148, and repealing Directive (EU) 2016/1148 (NIS Directive) (Text with EEA relevance) Text with EEA relevance Directiva (UE) del Parlamento Europeo y del Consejo de 23 de octubre de 2016 relativa a las medidas destinadas a garantizar un elevado nivel común de ciberseguridad en toda la Unión, por la que se modifican el Reglamento (UE) nº 2019/881 y la Directiva (UE) 2016/1148 y por la que se deroga la Directiva (UE) 2016/1148 (Directiva NIS2) por artículo.
