

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

This form will no longer be handed out during the flight. The Mexico Declaration of Goods form is a document that must be complete prior to entering Mexico. Forms are available in Cancun airport (carry a pen). Forms are available in Cancun airport (carry a pen). Can anyone help on this matter who has been Mexico Southern Mexico. Carry a pen so you can complete them while on the plane. A ticket for the return journey must always be presented upon arrival in Mexico. Report inappropriate content CUSTOMS FORM. There are two forms: an FMM tourist/immigration card, and a Customs form. The forms are usually handed out on the plane an hour or so before landing. The form is used to declare the luggage that you are bringing with you into the country and details of its contents such as the amounts of cash, any food, pharmaceuticals etc. All passengers aged 16 and over must hand out the goods declaration form on the plane as I'm really struggling to download the thing online!! For the most up-to-date passport and visa info, visit Whilst you don't need a Visa to visit Mexico, you'll need to complete a Customs declaration form these forms will be given to you on your flight. There has been an important change with regard to the customs forms: you have to complete the form "Declaration of Goods" in advance, print it and take it with you when you depart for Mexico. Medicines for personal use do not have to be declared. Re: Declaration of Goods form (TUI) There has been an important change with regard to the customs forms: you have to complete the form "Declaration of Goods" in advance, print it and take it with you when you depart for Mexico. Medicines for personal use do not have to be declared. British citizens don't need a visa to enter Mexico, but must have a valid passport. Er hoeft maar één formulier ingevuld te worden wanneer ouder en kind (eren) dezelfde achternaam hebben. A ticket for the return journey must always be presented upon arrival in Mexico. The info from FC is not quite correct. Forms are available in Cancun airport (carry a pen). Southern Mexico Tourism Southern Mexico Hotels Southern Mexico Re: Declaration of Goods form (TUI) The FMM immigration form and the Customs declaration form should be handed out on the flight, but sometimes they run out of forms. The form is used to declare the luggage that you are bringing with you into the country and details of its contents such as the amounts of cash, any food, pharmaceuticals etc. The FMM immigration form and the Customs declaration form should be handed out on the flight, but sometimes they run out of forms. When you arrive to Mexico you will need to complete a "Customs Form." Normally you will get this form in the plane on your way to Mexico. There's more advice on site and also a link to the Mexican gov site which says pretty much the same thing, as well as stating your allowances cantidades en efectivo y/o documento por cobrar" (Customs declaration for the import/export of cash, receivables or equivalent documents), which you can request from the customs personnel in charge at the entry ports to Mexico or download it from the Customs Internet Site: desk or at sat-gobmx Re: Declaration of Goods form (TUI) The FMM immigration form and the Customs declaration form should be handed out on the flight, but sometimes they run out of forms. Sounds like TUI are just covering themselves. Het formulier moet per persoon ingevuld worden. A full list of the items that must be declared can be found on the form Wat zijn de toegangseisen voor Mexico? Medicines for personal use do not have to be declared. Re: Declaration of Goods form (TUI) Re: Declaration of Goods form years ago. Vanaf dagen voor vertrek moet het douaneformulier 'Declaration of Goods' ingevuld en uitgeprint worden zodat je het kunt meenemen naar de bestemming. The images below are actual images of a Hi we're going to Cancun in weeks and have been asked to complete the above mentioned form but TUI have no idea what needs to be put on it as it's new and they haven't received any guidelines. Re: Declaration of Goods form (TUI) years ago. A full list of the items that must be declared can be found on the form Quote "You must fill in an online form prior to travelling to Mexico if you have any goods to declare. The Customs Form is ONE per family, so you just need to complete ONE form for everybody that is traveling together and LIVE together. This form will no longer be handed out during the flight. The Mexico Declaration of Goods form is a document that must be complete prior to entering Mexico.