

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

A hyperlink is provided for those chemicals for which the basis for listing documentation is available. The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of (Health and Safety Code section et seq.), also known as Proposition 65, requires that the Governor revise and republish at least once per year the list of chemicals known to the State to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity within the meaning of the Act. The Complete Proposition 65 Chemical List (Downloadable PDF and XLSX) Select Advanced search, filter and sort. Abiraterone acetate. As you know, California does not explicitly restrict the sales of products that contain the listed chemicals. Chemicals Known to the State of California to Cause Cancer or Reproductive Toxicity. The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986 requires that the Governor revise and republish at least once per year the list of chemicals known to the State to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity. The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHHA) maintains the list of chemicals regulated under Proposition 65. Listed as causing: Developmental Toxicity (04/08/) Female Reproductive Toxicity (04/08/) Male Reproductive Toxicity (04/08/) Acetaldehyde. Learn about chemicals, products and places associated with Proposition 65 warnings in California. However, many foods contain substances, such as saturated fats, salt and sugar, that should be consumed in moderation. Our California Proposition 65 services offer your organization analytical testing and consultancy services to evaluate your products for composition and to recommend a pathway to Proposition 65 compliance. The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment Proposition 65 requires businesses to determine if they must provide a warning about exposure to listed chemicals. Proposition 65 requires California to maintain and publish a list of chemicals that can cause cancer, birth defects, or other reproductive harm. Find the latest list of chemicals known to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. Chemicals Known to the State of California to Cause Cancer or Reproductive Toxicity. The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986 requires that the Governor revise and republish at least once per year the list of chemicals known to the State to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity. The Excel document also includes the listing mechanism for each chemical listing and the safe harbor level, if one has been adopted. Food is essential to life and good health. Additionally, the updated California Proposition 65 list is available on A. This fact sheet is intended to inform businesses and the public about the process that OEHHHA uses to develop Safe Use Determinations (SUDs) under Proposition 65. This is often a rigorous process that can nevertheless clarify important questions as to whether a business' products are subject to Proposition 65 requirements. The Proposition 65 list is due to update each year, and currently, the list has grown to more than + chemicals, and the listed chemicals are used in consumer products manufacturing, or as a by-product of the chemical processes. Some foods contain chemicals on the Proposition 65 list. The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHHA) maintains the current list of chemicals Fact Sheets. This site provides information about warnings for exposure to chemicals on the Proposition 65 list. The list contains a wide range. The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986 detail the Proposition 65 requirements. OEHHHA is issuing the following SUDs to Syngenta Crop Protection, LLC for The current Proposition 65 list is available on-line below, as a pdf or Excel download or through WestLaw. The Proposition 65 list contains approximately chemicals "known to the state to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive toxicity." The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHHA) announces the availability of a Proposition 65 interpretive guideline for residential exposure to dichlorvos (DDVP) in bait stations and lures during invasive pest eradication program activities. General Background Fact Sheet: Toxic Chemicals, Proposition 65 Warnings, and Your Health: The Big Picture español. List of chemicals: Proposition 65 requires the Governor to publish a list of chemicals that are known to the state of California to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity, and to update this list at least once a year.