

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

If you are a conditional permanent resident with a year How to fill out iform pdfStart by downloading the iform from the official USCIS siteOpen the downloaded form using a PDF reader on your computerCarefully read the instructions provided on the form to understand the requirements and guidelines for filling it out Form I, officially known as the Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card, is a document filed by the legal permanent residents (LPRs) of the United States who need to renew or replace their green cards. NOTE: If your conditional permanent resident status (for example: CR1, CR2, CF1, CF2) is expiring within the next Use Form I if you are a lawful permanent resident (LPR) or an LPR in commuter status who needs to apply to replace or renew your current Permanent Resident Card (Green This form is for permanent residents and conditional residents to apply to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for replacement of permanent resident If you are a conditional permanent resident, you can only replace your Green Card. The form you submit will Anyone who has been issued an expiring or expired Green Card must complete Form I to renew or replace their card. Designed by immigration lawyers, the Green Card I am a permanent resident who is taking up commuter status. Learn how to file, how much it costs, and moreYou should file Form I to renew your Permanent Resident Card if you were issued a card valid for years that has either expired or will expire within the next months. Also, if you became a permanent resident before you turned years old, you must replace your card when you become years old Learn how to apply for replacement or renewal of your Permanent Resident Card using Form I Find out the filing fee, evidence, biometric services, and other requirements for this application Learn how to use Form I, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card, to renew or replace your green card. The form is also used by those who have had their Green To apply for a Green Card renewal (Form I), you must submit a completed Form I, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card, along with the applicable filing fee The I form (Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card) is used to renew or replace a green card. Do not use this Form I if you are a conditional r Use Form I if you are a lawful permanent resident (LPR) or an LPR in commuter status who needs to apply to replace or renew your current Permanent Resident Card (Green Card). The form is filed with the USCIS if your green card has expired, is nearing expiration, is lost, or is damaged answer to every question in) I reviewed and provided or authorized all of the. CitizenPath's affordable, online service makes it easy to prepare Form I, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card. submitted with, my application; and) All of this information was complete, true, and correct. at the time of filing Find out the online filing option, the best time to file, the instructions, and the processing times This form is for permanent residents and conditional residents to apply to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for replacement of permanent resident cards. information in my application; 2) I understood all of the information contained in, and. Learn how to renew or replace your Green Card online or by mail.