

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

help SIYB trainers to clearly structure learning process. It is essential that only an IYB trained trainer be called upon to conduct IYB training. The Guide is based on SIYB Master Trainers Guide, developed by ILO SIYB Regional Project in Harare, Zimbabwe, and on SIYB Master Trainer Guide for Sri Lanka, developed by ILO SIYB Sri Lanka project. Like in the SIYB Trainers Guide, practical information is being presented in boxes. The SIYB e This guide is for use by SYB trainers from, who have attended the SIYB Training of Trainers (TOT) seminars. Boxes can include an illustration, a checklist or a provide potential beneficiaries with background information on each strategy tool introduced SIYB Master Trainer Development Programme. The SIYB Master Trainer Development Programme is the critical factor for the sustainability and multiplier effect of any SIYB programme. Trainers are called Local Programme Facilitators in the Level Business Management Skills programme. First developed in the s, SIYB has been growing and This guide is for use by SYB trainers from, who have attended the SIYB Training of Trainers (TOT) seminars. The guide assists the trainer in preparing and conducting effective SYB training. Who is This guide is for regular use by SIYB trainers who have successfully completed the IYB Training of Trainers (TOT) seminar conducted by the International Labour Organisation. This paper therefore takes a closer look at sustainability strategies of ILO's Start and Improve your Business (SIYB) entrepreneurship training and seeks to compile lessons SIYB training manuals. The guide assists the trainer in preparing and conducting Review the section of the "SIYB Trainer's/Facilitator's Guide" on the detailed steps you need to take in preparing to conduct a training on Business Awareness (also known as This guide has been developed by the Youth Entrepreneurship Facility as a tool for building training and facilitation skills of trainers. The guide complements the SIYB trainer's NPFs to implement SIYB Training of Trainers (TOT) seminars. SIYB manuals, self-guided learning modules, videos as well as the different assignments that entrepreneurs need to complete during training of entrepreneurs. The concept of 'multiplier' should be handled with care as Training of Trainers should never be an isolated income generating activity, but rather be part of a The ILO's Start and Improve Your Business (SIYB) entrepreneurship training programme was designed as a set of inter-related training packages to support micro and small enterprises throughout the different phases of business development, from business creation to growth and expansion. Objective of the guide The objective of the guide is to help you, the SYB trainer, to deliver effective, high quality SYB training activities IYB Trainer's Guide Introduction Who this guide is for This guide is for regular use by SIYB trainers who have successfully completed the IYB Training of Trainers (TOT) seminar conducted by the International Labour Organisation or its representatives.