

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

Like the benediction before the meal, the Grace afterwards raises the satisfaction of a physical craving into the realm of the spirit. Remember us on it, Our God, for goodness; consider us on it for blessing, and help us on it for good life. Now let my mouth laud praise for God, and let the whole human race bless God's holy name for all time. But it's not just about food; only the first of the set of blessings in the Birkat Hamazon explicitly thank God for food. But it's not just about food; only the first of the set of blessings in the Birkat Hamazon explicitly thank God for food. Leader: חַוֵּרַי נ'וֹרֵיכ! לְפָנֶיךָ יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מִשְׁלֹכֵנוּ מִשְׁלֹכֵנוּ טוֹבוֹ: הָיִינוּ מִן שֶׁ רִיבֵךְ אֵין וְיָרָךְ וְהֵי Chaverai n'vareich! Let us praise God! Missing: pdfThe English and Hebrew texts for the Grace After Meals (birkat hamazon), and the other blessings recited after eating food Birkat Hamazon, translated to English as the 'blessing over food', is a series of blessings of thanksgiving recited after eating a meal. Like the benediction before the meal, the Grace afterwards raises the Birkat Hamazon, translated to English as the 'blessing over food', is a series of blessings of thanksgiving recited after eating a meal. Group: Baruch atah Adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam, hazan et ha'olam kulo b'tuvo b'chen b'chesed The Birkat Hamazon (blessing of the food), known in Yiddish as benching (from the Latin ben-edicere—"bless"), is the three to five-minute prayer service that we commonly refer to as HaMazon, as is written in Torah: And you shall eat and you shall be satisfied, and you shall bless Adonai, your Elohim, to establish the root of this mitzvah in the Daily Blessings: Birkat HaMazon (Grace After Meals) Short Version. In the matter of salvation and compassion, pity, be gracious and compassionate with us and help us, for our eyes are turned on You, because You are God, the gracious and compassionate King The full grace said after meals, called Birkat Hamazon, is a rather long prayer that involves several blessings (see a good Siddur for the entire recitation). Transliteration. As for us, we will bless God from now on and forever more: Praise Birkat Hamazon: Grace After Bread (Bentching) "And you shall eat, and be sated, and bless the L-rd your G-d " (Deuteronomy). An alternative, shorter version is provided here (it is actually the first part of the entire blessing) חַוֵּרַי נְבָרֵךְ! Grace After Bread consists of four The full Birkat Hamazon is recited whenever the meal was preceded by hamotzi lechem min ha'aretz. Leader: Hebrew Text. The remainder thank God for the land of Israel and God's general goodness The full Birkat Hamazon is recited whenever the meal was preceded by hamotzi lechem min ha'aretz. Translation.