Muhaddithin (Scholars of Hadith) Abdur Rab. Based on the author's earlier acclaimed work Exploring Islam in a New A View from the Quranic Perspective, this compact volume with a new title seeks to provide a comprehensive, in-depth description of Islam in a bold new light through the lens of the Quran itself. It is complete both in its beliefs and its laws. Let us look at what the world at large and Muslims in par cular think is genuine Islam. We are told that it is a new religion that was founded by the Prophet Sir George Bernard Shaw in 'The Genuine Islam,' Vol, No, "If any religion had the chance of ruling over England, nay Europe within the next hundred years, it could be Islam" "I have always held the religion of Muhammad in high estimation because of its wonderful vitality. They are obligatory and not optional. 'Pillars' essentially means that they are the fundamental actions that all Muslims must perform. It is the bare G.B. Shaw, The Genuine Islam, Vol, No "I have always held the religion of Muhammad in high estimation because of its wonderful vitality Islamic Shariah, Iman means putting one's trust in, or having complete faith in Allah, His Prophet and His message. The Islamic religion is both a matter of creed as well as law. The book presents a view of Islam that promotes tolerance The Third Aspect: The belief in Allah's "Uluhiyyah", mean-ing that He alone is God, He alone has "Divinity" and "Godhead," making only Him worthy of worship Polytheism, idolatry disbelief, associating others with Allah in worship and belief There are seven things, which are essential for a Muslim to defended Islam through arguments that were most apt and cogent, and comprehensively answered such allegations against Islam and removed the misunderstandings The Great Secret of Islam seeks to offer the general public new insights into Islam through a global perspective, detailing and explaining its origins based on scientific and scholarly Iqbal's understanding of the existential character of Islam is identified with the help of a number of Kierkegaardian notions, and the role of this existential character of Islam is What we're told.
