

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

Encourage the children to continue to return to the Role on the Wall as you read the Neil Gaiman is the author of the New York Times best-selling children's book Coraline and of the picture books The Day I Swapped My Dad for Goldfish and The Wolves in the Walls. Certificate: PG.

Running timemins. An Unfriendly Black Cat c. A Strange New HomeThe main idea of Chapteris a. It was a very old house—it had an attic under the roof and a cellar under the ground and an overgrown garden with huge old trees in it. RetryingRetrying Coraline's parents are often busy working in their studies, and, since it's the end of the summer, Coraline is left to her own devices much of the time. Suitable for: KS2/3

English/Literacy This resource is designed to work across upper KS2 and lower KSIt could form the basis of a unit of work in either Key Stage or could act as a transition unit between the two. This Dinner Again b. Directed by: Henry Selick. The Fairy Garden d. He is also the author of the critically acclaimed and award-winning American Gods Coraline Study Notes. Both of her parents worked, doing things on computers, which meant that they were home a lot of the time. "Mmph," said Coraline. Disappointingly, it opens on to a brick CORALINE DISCOVERED THE DOOR a little while after they moved into the house. Shortly after moving into an old house with strange tenants living in the flats above and below, Coraline discovers a locked wooden door at the far corner of the drawing room. d. Coraline's family didn't own all of the house—it was too big for that. Each of them had their own study. Curiosity runs riot in Coraline's mind and she unlocks the door to see what lies behind it. Coraline's parents spend a lot of time with Coraline. Coraline visits strange neighbors including Coraline's speech and what they have to infer from her body language and gestures. Coraline is the center of her parents' attentionA good title for Chaptercould be a. Synopsis And how does her personality make that action seem most likely ('in character')? Instead they owned part of it c. What does something Coraline does tell you about her personality? Coraline's father was home. "Hello Coraline," he said when she came in, without turning round. Synopsis. There was a problem previewing this document. One afternoon, exploring the yard, Coraline meets a black cat who runs away when she tries to pet it; another afternoon, stuck inside during a rainstorm, Coraline becomes curious about a large wooden door in , 'In a small group, write down all the key moments you can remember from watching *Coraline*Once you have written down as much as you can remember, work out which order these moments came in the film It was time to talk to her father. "It's raining." "Yup," said her fatherCaroline Teachers Notes.