

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

Earlier that afternoon, when Shiftlet initially set out with Lucynell, the sky was blue and clear, which gave a sense that God was smiling on them—Shiftlet was doing what he was supposed to. The end of the story is rich in irony. Young Lucynell has been abandoned by her husband, the odious Mr. Shiftlet, in a small town at a diner called The Hot Spot. Created Date: 19/PM Lucynell is in her late twenties, although she seems younger. She's described as looking like an angel or a baby doll, with pink-gold hair. The cleansing rain symbolizes God's grace, and when Shiftlet steps on the gas to outrun the storm, it shows that he has rejected that grace and chosen sin. Lucynell lives with her mother, Mrs. Crater, on a remote farm in the south. She is deaf, mute, and has mental disabilities, but she is able to do work around the farm like sweeping and feeding the chickens.