

I'm not robot

I am not robot!

A Discussion Guide for Because of Winn-Dixie by Kate DiCamillo for Small-Group Text Talks

Because of Winn-Dixie by Kate DiCamillo Reading Level: Grades 3–5 Overview This lesson plan is designed to help teachers organize In ‘ Because of Winn-Dixie ’, Kate DiCamillo talks about the friendly and amiable years old Opal Buloni who narrates her story of last summer when she was years old, lonely, sad, and naive about life. They try tying him up outside, but he just howls until Samuel starts howling too. At present, Opal is living a much happier, better life all thanks to her crossing paths with a stray, shabby dog – Winn-Dixie Analysis. The ADAPTED TEXT is Lexile, or 1st grade level and utilizes anaphoric

The preacher put down his pencil and rubbed his nose, and finally, he looked up. Winn-Dixie smiled back at the preacher. “He smells nice, too,” said the preacher. “Don’t you look handsome.” Winn-Dixie hates being left alone. One summer’s day, ten-year-old India

Because of Winn-Dixie StoryFree download as PDF File.pdf), Text File.txt) or read online for free. Opal insists that Winn-Dixie is just lonely and feels empty when he’s alone This ADAPTED TEXT is based off the beloved story “Because of Winn-Dixie” by Kate DiCamillo. Publication date Pdf_module_version He went over and put his head in the preacher’s lap. Miss Franny Block tells Opal and Winn-Dixie the story of how she came

Because of Winn-Dixie by Kate DiCamillo (Candlewick,) Opal’s summer in a new town goes from boring to almost magical when her new dog, a stray she picked up in the

Because of Winn-Dixie Discussion GuideFree download as PDF File.pdf), Text File.txt) or read online for free. The classic heartwarming tale from Kate DiCamillo—now with an afterword from the beloved author, reflecting on twenty years in print. More

Because of Winn-Dixie by Kate DiCamillo. “Well,” he said, smiling real big at Winn-Dixie, “well, now. At first, Opal and the preacher leave him in the trailer when they go out, but Winn-Dixie destroys things while they’re gone. The text was adapted by Josie Stump, MEd, to simplify the text (shorter length, simpler vocabulary) and add symbol-supported text.